The IESBA revised and restructured Code of Ethics

The International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including International Independence Standards) has been completely rewritten. Beyond its new structure, the new Code brings together substantive revisions to ethics and independence provisions and clarifies how professional accountants should apply the conceptual framework to comply with the fundamental principles of ethics, and be independent. The new Code will become effective 15 June 2019.

The aim of the course is to ensure that all participants are aware of all the provisions of the new Code of Ethics.

Who should attend the seminar?

Professional Accountants of all levels either working in practice or in the industry and in need for compliance with the International Code of Ethics.

The programme specifications have been approved by the HRDA.
