

Presenting with impact

The purpose of the seminar is to help participants enhance their presentation and facilitation skills, so as to deliver presentations even more effectively.

More specifically, the seminar will help participants:

- Identify key qualities of effective presenters
- Identify what makes a compelling presentation
- Practice their presentation skills
- Build confidence, credibility and trust
- Facilitate discussion and manage participants' behaviour
- Effectively use verbal skills, non-verbal skills and visual aids
- Structure their presentations

Who should attend the seminar?

Junior or senior members of staff who are involved in making any kind of presentations within their firms and/or clients.
